The Easter message from Pastor Eggold that brought the message of salvation through Christ Jesus.

Counting our Blessings

2 Providing hope through a personal story about grief in the Broadcaster magazine.	3 Being reminded of God's promises through the prayer journal I received in a care package.	4 Providing daily reminders of God's love through scripture in the Hope-Full Living devotional.	5 Hearing familiar hymns to sing along with on the Worship Anew program.	6 Giving me a cross that I can hold when I need God's help.	7 Blessed by the ministry team who call me in my time of need.	8 Rejoicing in the message of the resurrection brought to me from Pastor Zeckzer.
9 Showing me love through the personally written note that I received after my surgery.	10 Receiving a Hope-Full Living devotional from my pastor during his visit.	11 The Worship Anew Choir sings my favorite hymns week in and week out.	12 The staff prayed with me after I lost my husband.	13 Worship Anew helped me to connect to a church in my area so that I can receive communion again.	14 The care package allowed me to show love to someone in need.	15 Reminder of God's grace through Paul's conversion to faith shared in Pastor Maier's message.
16 Having the Worship Anew program available on my Roku so that I can watch anytime.	17 Listening to a Hope-Full Living audio devotional that spoke to my needs today.	18 Keeping Worship Anew on my local broadcast station.	19 Bringing me comfort and warmth with a blanket sent in a care package during my dark days of recovery.	20 The Broadcaster magazine gave hope to my widowed mother.	21 Having the opportunity to watch a worship service when I can't go to church.	22 Reminder that the "Good Shepherd" will always find me, his lost sheep, from Pastor Ahlersmeyer's message.
23 The partnership with Lutheran Braille Workers allows me to receive my Hope-Full Living devotional in large print.	24 I can sing along with the hymns on the Worship Anew program.	25 I was able to watch sermons on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday because of special Worship Anew programs.	26 Reminding me that God still loves and cares for me.	27 Providing uplifting messages through the Worship Anew program each week.	28 Raising my spirits by showing me God's love by sending me a birthday card.	29 Rejoicing that my "sorrow will turn into joy" as shared through Pastor Jonker's message.
30 Showing me love through a care package when I was at my worst.	31 Hearing The Lord's Prayer each week on the Worship Anew program.	32 Being able to praise God by singing in a choir for the worship program.	33 Offering Worship Anew on YouTube so that I can watch the program in my home.	34 Being encouraged to live out my faith by the message in a Hope-Full Living devotion.	35 Bringing new life to my church's stained glass windows.	36 The glorious picture of Heaven as shown in Revelation as shared in Pastor Mueller's message.
37 Ministered through Worship Anew while serving abroad via the American Forces Network.	38 The blessings of music through the Lenten Choir Program that I was able to watch on my TV.	39 Receiving a DVD of Worship Anew programs so while I can't go to church, I can still watch worship at home.	40 Blessed that the Broadcaster magazine speaks to my spiritual, mental, and physical needs.	41 The larger print of the Hope-Full Living devotion makes it easy for me to read.	42 Using the Bible study in the Broadcaster magazine each month with my seniors group.	43 The reminder of the gift of the Holy Spirit as shared through Pastor Shoemaker's message.
44 Showing pictures of my church on the Worship Anew program.	45 Sharing kind words through the Broadcaster magazine when I'm in the midst of my grief.	46 Hope-Full Living speaks to the challenges I'm facing.	47 Blessed because staff prayed with me when I called in to ask a question.	48 Seeing my grandchild singing God's praises on the program.	49 The personalized note in the care package that said someone was praying for me.	50 The call of the Church to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ as shared this Pentecost from Guest Pastor, Rev. Dr. Lawrence Rast.
